

BUCKBY FEAST SCARECROW TRAIL

Buckby Feast Scarecrow Trail will take place on Sunday 20th August as the first event of this year's Feast week.

The best scarecrows will be awarded a rosette.

(Please note the judge's decision is final)

There will be 2 categories this year for judging.

Family – including at least one scarecrow maker under 16

Adult – all scarecrow makers over 16

Scarecrows should be displayed for judging by 10am on the day.

Rosettes will be awarded as soon as judging is finished.

Scarecrows should be visible from the public highway.

Visitors will not be entitled to enter your property.

This year's theme is BOOKS – characters, titles, authors, etc.

So let your imagination run riot!

The trail is open to all residents of Long Buckby and Long Buckby Wharf.

Scarecrow entry fee £1

Visitors will pay £1 for a map of the Trail. All proceeds to Buckby Feast
